

Making it Work

Live web forum about Employment & Cancer

People affected by cancer including family and friends are invited to take part in a free, live web forum about work issues after a cancer diagnosis.

Date: Tuesday 13 July

Time: 6:00pm – 7:30pm EST

Location: www.cancerconnections.com.au

Topics include:

- Communicating a cancer diagnosis to colleagues and managers
- Returning to work after cancer
- Your rights at work, including dismissal and discrimination
- Flexible work arrangements, leave issues & managing expectations
- Managing fatigue, 'chemo brain' & other side-effects at work
- Managing guilt, loss of confidence & self-esteem in the workplace

Participants can submit questions prior to the forum and summary notes will be available for those who are unable to participate.

Spaces are limited. Registration is essential. Please RSVP by email to csg@cancervic.org.au by Thursday 8 July, or call the Cancer Council Helpline on 13 11 20 to register your interest today.

A joint initiative of Cancer Council NSW and Cancer Council Victoria.
